1 INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 The Act seeks, inter alia, to give effect to the constitutional right of access to any information held by the state or by any other person where such information is required for the exercise or protection of any right.
- 1.2 The Act also requires public and private bodies to compile manuals that provide information on both the types and categories of records held by such public and private bodies. Telkom SA Limited (“Telkom”) is a public body under paragraph (b)(ii) of the definition of “public body” in section 1 of the Act. In terms of section 8 of the Act a public body referred to in paragraph (b)(ii) referred to above may either be a public body or a private body in relation to a record of that body. This document serves as Telkom’s manual with regard to information or records in relation to which Telkom is a public body.

2 PARTICULARS IN TERMS OF SECTION 14

2.1 Structure and functions - [Section 14(1)(a)]

2.1.1 Telkom is a public company incorporated in terms of the company laws of the Republic of South Africa under registration number 1991/005476/06. The shares of Telkom are held as to 39.8 % by the government of South Africa (through the Minister of Communications).

2.4 Processes and procedures for requesting information or records - [Section 14(1)(d)]

2.4.1 The requester must use the prescribed form to make the request for access to a record. The request must be made to the Deputy Information Officer whose contact details are set out in paragraph 2.2.2 above. The request must be made to the address, fax number or electronic mail address of such Deputy Information Officer set out in paragraph 2.2.2 above.

2.4.2 The requester must provide sufficient particulars on the request form to enable the Deputy Information Officer to identify the record requested and the requester.

2.4.3 The requestor should also indicate which form of access is required.

- 2.4.4 The requester must state whether the record concerned is preferred in any particular language;
- 2.4.5 The requestor should also indicate if he or she wishes to be informed of the decision on the request in any other manner and state that manner and the necessary particulars to be so informed.
- 2.4.6 If the request is made on behalf of another person, the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which he is making the request, to the reasonable satisfaction of the Deputy Information Officer.
- 2.4.7 The Deputy Information Officer shall notify the requester (other than a personal requester) by notice, requiring the requester to pay the prescribed fee (if any) before further processing the request.
- 2.4.8 A requester whose request for access to a record has been granted must pay an access fee for the reproduction and for the searching and preparation of the copies or transcriptions of the content of the record requested and for the time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure.
- 2.4.9 The Deputy Information Officer will inform the requester of his decision within 30 days after receipt of the request or may extend that period by a further period not exceeding 30 days. The period within which the Deputy

Information Officer will inform the requester of his decision is subject to such extension as may be required to give a third party the chance to make representations to the Deputy Information Officer where the record requested is with regard to the record of that third party.

2.4.10 In the event that Telkom refuses to give the requester access to requested records, the requester may lodge an application with a court of law for Telkom to be ordered to give the requester access to the requested records.

2.4.11 If the court orders Telkom to grant the requester access to the requested records, the requester must pay the access fee contemplated in paragraph 2.4.8 above, before access to such records can be granted.

2.5 Grounds For Refusal of Access to Records - [Part 1 Chapter 4]

2.5.1 The Deputy Information Officer shall, subject to other provisions of the Act, refuse a request for information or record if that information or record relates to:

(a) mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person, which involves the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural person;

(b) mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party, if the record contains –

(i) trade secrets of that third party;

- (ii) financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which the disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party;
 - (iii) information supplied in confidence by a third party to Telkom, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition.
- (c) mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement;
 - (d) mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property;
 - (e) mandatory protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings;
 - (f) The information about research being or to be carried out by or on behalf of a third party where such disclosure would likely expose that third party or the person that is or will be carrying on the research on behalf of that third party or the subject matter of the research to serious disadvantage.

2.5.2 The Deputy Information Officer may refuse a request for information or record if that information or record relates to:

- (a) Information that was supplied by a third party, in confidence, the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to prejudice the future supply of similar information, or information from the same source and it is in the public interest that such information, or information from the same source should continue to be supplied;
- (b) Mandatory protection of safety of individuals and protection of property;
- (c) Mandatory protection of law enforcement and legal proceedings;
- (d) the commercial activities of Telkom, which may include –
 - (i) trade secrets of Telkom;
 - (ii) financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of Telkom;
 - (iii) information which, if disclosed could put Telkom at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
 - (iv) a computer program which is owned by Telkom and which is protected by copyright.

- (e) information about research being or to be carried out by or on behalf of Telkom, the disclosure of which would likely to expose Telkom or the person that is or will be carrying out the research on behalf of Telkom or the subject matter of the research, to serious disadvantage.
- (f) An opinion, advice, report or recommendation obtained or prepared, or an account of a consultation, discussion or deliberation that has occurred, including but not limited to, minutes of a meeting, for the purpose of assisting to formulate a policy or to take a decision in the exercise of a power or performance of a duty conferred or imposed by law.
