

FAQ - ShowMax VOD & Telkom promotion

What is ShowMax VOD (video on demand)?

ShowMax is a subscription video on demand service that recently launched in South Africa. It is Africa's biggest online collection of series and movies, with over 20 000 episodes of the best local and international shows. All you need is the Internet and with Telkom's bolt on data deal, your entertainment is sorted.

What is this Telkom ShowMax promotion about?

Any new or existing customers with qualifying products and services, will have limited unmetered Internet access to their ShowMax service based on a fair usage policy.

Who qualifies for this promotion?

Any new or existing DSL, FTTH or LTE customer who subscribe to TelkomInternet and also subscribe to the TI Entertainment VAS bolt-on, will receive limited unmetered Internet access to their ShowMax service, based on a fair usage policy.

Any new and or existing SmartHome customer who take up a Premium, Supreme or any of our Infinite 100, 200 or LTE-A offers, will receive limited unmetered Internet access to their ShowMax service, based on a fair usage policy. The bundles all include the TI Entertainment VAS bolt-on.

How much will the TI Entertainment bolt-on cost?

The TI Entertainment bolt-on monthly subscription fee is R99, and gives a subscriber limited unmetered access to ShowMax and other specific entertainment services

How much will my ShowMax subscription cost?

ShowMax monthly subscription fee is R99, and gives a subscriber unlimited access to the ShowMax library, with videos streaming in resolutions of up to 720p. You can have up to five devices registered simultaneously to an account, and may stream to two of them at a time. More information is available on www.showmax.com